All Are Welcome

Pastoral Candidate Steve Lee

Greetings! I look forward to being with the church this Sunday. Thank you for the invitation as well as your prayers!

My wife Jennifer and I love people. The Gospel reminds us daily and fills our hearts of God's grace, his forgiveness of sin, as well as his unconditional love.

We are thankful and committed to being ambassadors of Christ. One of our favorite verses is from 2 Corinthians 5:18-21, where it says: 'All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting people's sins against them. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation. We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ's behalf: Be reconciled to God. God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.'

In short, we are committed to the Great Commission (Matt.28:16-20), as well as the Greatest Commandment (Matt.22:37-40).

Everyone needs Jesus. We are committed as well as available, to serve God as well as love people in this way.

Pastor Steve is a graduate of Talbot Theological Seminary with a Masters of Divinity.
