Servant of the month: Don Klements

If you know Don Klements he doesn't like much attention on himself. He doesn't like his picture taken much less something to be written about him. I think that's makes it only more special that he let me! Tom has been coming to this church more then twenty years with his precious wife Susan. He was in manufacturing before He retired. He has been helping the other Don (they are Don 1 and Don 2.) after he retired. They do general maintaince here at th church. Most days you can find them working at one thing or another. Always keeping our campus running. He says "it gets me out of the house for a while!" His very favorite Bible scripture is Psalm 23. He say of it that he has lived it. He use to play golf, he likes to work on his 1965 Ranchero (has been working on it for years!), likes to watch some TV and reads Tom Clansy and John Grisham novels. He is also a wounded Viet-Nam Veteran doesn't like to talk much about that. Thank you Don for your miliary service and for your service to God here at church

There are two boxes  you might want to check. One if you don't have envelopes and want some. The other is if your information stays the same with no changes.

OFFERING ENVELOPES

This month, we will be passing out offering envelopes for 2022 for those that signed up for them. If you send your offering directly through your bank, we would love for you to turn your 2022 envelopes back into the connect center so that our financial counters can use your numbered envelopes when your bank sends us the checks. Thanks.
