Devotional for the Week: Living a Selfless Life

“Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves, not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others.”
Philippians 2:3-4 NIV

The Foundation for Others First Living

The Bible says you were created in the image of God. YOU! You are made to be like Him. If you truly embrace that, then you’ll realize you were made to serve, help, and be there for other people.

If you call yourself a Christian, that means you want to live like Jesus. And if you look at the life of Jesus, it was all about other people. He was always helping people, healing people, teaching people, serving people, loving people – the list goes on and on.

If you want to be like Jesus and truly live a Christian life, that means you do the same. Live like you believe you were created in the image of God. Serve others like you’re living out the life of Jesus. Challenge yourself every day to look for opportunities – big or small – to serve, help, love, and be there for other people. When you do this, you’ll be living the way God created you to live.
