Summer Camp for Grace Kids & Grace Students

Grace Kids are heading to Cedarbrook Camp in our local mountains on July 17-22, 2022. Check out the bulletin board in the church lobby to find out which Grace Kids are going.

Grace Students are heading to Momentum Youth Conference in Indiana on July 18-24, 2022. Check out the bulletin board in the church lobby to find out which Grace Students are going.

Thank you to those who have helped contribute to their camp fund already. If you would like to still contribute, please see the bulletin board in the lobby for amount of funds these students still need to raise. You can mark your offering envelope as “$$ for Grace Kids Camp” OR “$$ for Grace Students Youth Conference” if you would like to help them with the cost to go.

Momentum Travel Team

Please keep Tim and the Travel Team in prayer. They will be on our campus this month. Pray for opportunities to share the faith and do ministry wherever they go.

Kneel First | Act Second

We live in a busy culture. Surrounded by lots of messages. Lots of activities. Lots of decisions. Lots of problems.

When faced with daily problems, we often hastily make decisions based on what we feel is right, in that moment. Maybe we consult a friend, or ask Siri for advice, but where does prayer and conversation with God come into the picture? Prayer for many believers is often a last resort. "God, I have tried everything and nothing is working, please help!"

Colossians 4:2 says, "Devote yourselves to prayer, being watchful and thankful"

Am I praying as a first response to a situation rather than a last resort? Prayer and conversation with God, should be our first response when faced with life's decisions and problems.

Remember, we have direct access to God, 24hrs a day, 7 days a week, so let's humble ourselves before the Lord, come to our knees daily and seek God as a first response! As a church, let's kneel first and act second! Prayer must be a priority.
