Genesis 22 | Adversity turned Opportunity

“Then He said, “Take now your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains of which I shall tell you. So Abraham rose early ... and went..”

Abraham demonstrates great faith and trust in God. After a long time of waiting for a promised son – Isaac – God instructs Abraham to take the boy, Isaac, to a distant mountain and to offer him as a burnt offering/a sacrifice.

Imagine yourself in Abraham’s shoes. The thing you have longed for and prayed for – a son. And now the gift from the Lord has turned into a moment of adversity for Abraham – obey God or save his son? In what seemed like a devastating turn of events for Abraham, actually moved him forward in faith and obedience to God.

Rather than choosing rebellion and a more painless way out of the adversity, Abraham leaned into God.

I am reminded of an old hymn ‘Trust & Obey’ that says:

*But we never can prove the delights of His love
Until all on the altar we lay;
For the favor He shows, for the joy He bestows,
Are for them who will trust and obey*

What we often see as Adversity, God sees as an Opportunity - to refine us and draw our obedience to Him. Are you willing to be tested and walk the road of adversity trusting that God is in full control of the situation?
