

"Helping people experience the hope found in a life-changing relationship with Jesus".

Isaiah 9:6-7 NIV

6 For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. 7 Of the greatness of his government and peace, there will be no end. He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever. The zeal of the Lord Almighty will accomplish this.

Isaiah 9:2

2 The people who walk in darkness will see a great light. For those who live in a land of deep darkness, a light will shine.

Isaiah 1:1

1 These are the visions that Isaiah, son of Amoz, saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. He saw these visions during the years when Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah.

Here are the approximate reign dates for the kings during the time of Isaiah in the Kingdom of Judah:

- Uzziah (Azariah): around 792-740 BCE
- Jotham: around 750-731 BCE
- Ahaz: around 735-715 BCE
- Hezekiah: around 715-686 BCE.

These actions collectively contributed to the spiritual and moral decline of Judah during Ahaz's reign.

They were experiencing three major things:

1. Spiritual Darkness.
2. All types of leadership had failed them. (Government, Community, Home.)
3. God gave them HOPE.

People often anticipate hope during challenging times or when facing uncertainties. Hope indeed plays a crucial role in sustaining one's spirit, often providing resilience and motivation in challenging circumstances.
