Read Apply Pray

31 days of priority proverbs from God's Word

January 21-27, 2024

Haggai 2

January 21 - Verses 1-3

1. How does the Lord's encouragement to Zerubbabel apply to your own feelings of discouragement or inadequacy?
2. In what ways can the promise of God's presence provide comfort and strength in challenging times?

January 22 - Verses 4-5

1. Reflect on the significance of the phrase "My Spirit remains among you." How does the presence of God's Spirit impact your faith journey?
2. Consider instances in your life where God's Spirit has empowered you to overcome obstacles.
3. In what ways can you apply the call to "Be strong" and "Work", "Do not fear".

January 23 - Verses 6-9

1. How do these verses deepen your understanding of God's sovereignty and control over all aspects of life?
2. In what areas of your life do you need to trust God's timing and plan more?

January 24 - Verses 10-12

1. Reflect on the concept of consecration and its relevance in your daily life. Are there areas where you can set yourself apart for God's purposes?
2. Consider the blessings of obedience mentioned in these verses. How have you experienced God's favor through obedience?

January 25 - Verses 13-14

1. How can the principle of holiness spreading from the unclean to the clean be applied in your relationships and community?
2. Reflect on the impact of individual choices on the broader community. How can your actions contribute to the overall well-being of others?

January 26 - Verses 15-19

1. Consider the importance of priorities in these verses. How can you align your priorities with God's desires for your life?
2. Reflect on the connection between material blessings and spiritual obedience. How can you steward your resources in a way that honors God?

January 27 - Verses 20-23

1. Explore the significance of Zerubbabel as a signet ring. How does this imagery convey God's purpose and favor?
2. Reflect on the promises of shaking and overthrowing in these verses. How does this speak to God's authority and justice?
