Believe it or not, YOU are loved!“... he has set his love upon me” (Psalm 91:14)

A very simple and basic need of every human heart is affection, the desire to be loved. You cannot say that you are friendless when Christ has said, “Henceforth I call you not servants ... but I have called you friends” (John 15:15).

To any who lament the fact that they have been bereft of affection and love in this life, I joyfully commend to you Jesus. He loved you enough to lay down His life for you. Not only that, but by His atonement upon the cross, He purchased the favor of God on your behalf, and now through Him you may be the recipient of the grace and love of God without measure.

The truth is clear because our God said, “I have loved you with an everlasting love” (Jer 31:3). Or as one of my friends likes to say (his t-shirt proclaims it), “God loves you and there’s nothing you can do about it!”
